

Sancor Seguros Ventures

Privacy Policy

Personal Data submitted by the interested party in the form shall be exact, current and true at all times.

Personal information is processed and stored in servers or magnetic media which have security standards and physical and technological protection as it is established by the Law of Personal Data Protection, N° 25.326.

SANCOR SEGUROS VENTURES ensures that the information shall:

- 1) Be kept in strict confidentiality, shall not be used in no other way but in relation to the analysis of it to evaluate a possible connection between SANCOR SEGUROS and the interested party.
- 2) Full fill all the reasonable security measures to protect such information.
- 3) Not be revealed to any third party for a purpose other than the ones mentioned here.
- 4) Not retain personal confidential data or information longer than the required time estimated for the legal purposes that information can be used for or it is required by any law during the effective time.

SANCOR SEGUROS VENTURES shall process the data only for the following purposes:

- (i) Processing to make, create, develop, operate, deliver, keep and improve products or services offered or carried out by SSV;
- (ii) To full fill other reasonable purposes additional to (i).
- (iii) To communicate with the user about new opportunities, calls or products or services.
- (iv) Fulfillment or application of law.

Data Rights.

The entrepreneur has the right to access and review personal data SSV will have about them; rectify any personal detail we might have about them which is inaccurate, request the elimination of personal data we have about them and the right to request the suspension of the processing of the information. You can exercise your rights by contacting SSV at the email address: ventures@sancorseguros.com